

Lee Shippey Writes On Gratuities

A CONGRESSIONAL committee has rejected the President's suggestion that yachts, hunting lodges and expensive nightclubs entertainment should no longer be charged off as "business expense," and that no more than $30 a day be allowed for entertainment of one customer.

When that suggestion was made this column applauded it, and two or three readers took the trouble to protest that I was behind the times—that such means of winning friends and influencing buyers or politicians or what not, were legitimate and accepted, and a good thing for business.

And the committee, possibly thinking of its own junkies, agrees with them.

I confess it has been 13 years since I had an expense account, and probably I am behind the times. But I think that attitude is one of the things that are terribly wrong with our country. What is costly entertainment of anyone from whom we hope for favors but a form of bribery? And isn't it an insult for anyone to try to buy your friendship or buyer's judgment for a few dollars or even a few hundred dollars?

HOWEVER in fairness I must confess one night of grandeur we accepted. When my helpsend and I took off for a trip to Europe the Swiss consul in Los Angeles alerted the manager of the Swiss National Tourist Bureau and asked me to phone him when we reach Zurich.

When I did so the manager said he had made reservations for us at the Dolder Grand. We thanked him and drove there.

In France we had hired a car and driver and invited Madeleine's cousin, his wife and two children to go with us, and had been touring a couple of weeks before getting into Switzerland, so the crowded car had a lot of junk wired on behind it, a la Oakies. So the stately hotel averted us a little and when we were installed in the suite reserved for Aga Khan, due later, we decided it was too rich for our blood, and we would check out immediately after breakfast next morning.

WHEN WE checked out they wouldn't let us pay for the suite, thank heaven, but only for the meals, so once I did accept courtesies which would have cost more than $30 a day, if we'd paid for them. But that's the only time. After 30 years in Hollywood, we had many at lunch at the expense of some motion picture studio while interviewing one of its stars and considered it perfectly legitimate.

For the same purpose, I hosted Clark Gable, Cecil De Mille, James Hilton and many other notables for luncheon on my expense account, and I don't think any of those luncheons cost more than $3. That, alas, shows how eating costs have risen.

WHAT WORRIES me is the fact that the widely accepted code today permits vacation, night club parties with attractive feminine companions supplied and a lot of similar things to be charged off as business expense.

Of course, the fact that I'm past the age and position to get such courtesies may somewhat affect my judgment, but I think these tendencies are darned unhealthy for the country we all love.

Condemnation Suits On Suffolk Opening

BULLETIN

Later, Sam Perloff, after heated exchange with councilmen, agreed to revert to his original plan of accepting $9,000 for his right-of-way for the Suffolk St. opening and thus forego condemnation proceedings. Council advised him the proper papers would be drawn up for his signing.

Sierra Madre property owners face a tax increase, possibly 3.1 cents above the $1,532 per $1,000 valuation they have been paying these recent years.

Condemnation proceedings will be started to force opening of the proposed Suffolk St. extension in the heart of Downtown Business District.

Angle parking on W. Sierra Madre Blvd. appears doomed.

Police, lowest paid in the area, may get a raise despite the city's low finances.

The proposed better-lighting project for Sierra Madre Blvd. and intersections throughout the city may go ahead.

THESE WERE the highlights of Tuesday night's City Council meeting, the Suffolk St. opening project sparking fireworks in which City Administrator Lawrence Bevington and councilmen openingly accused Sam Perloff with "scuttling the ship" after he had agreed to accept $9,000 for property adjacent to the new Post Office building now being erected and which is needed for the new street.

Initially, the First Western Bank reported its opposition to a stub street extending from S. Baldwin and the Perloff property to its parking lot. (The street originally would have extended from S. Baldwin through to S. Hermosa, but objections by Carl Hansen and a law suit which he won precluded this.) Then a cul-de-sac street extending from S. Baldwin to the bank property was proposed.

The turnout by Perloff ignited bitter words from Bevington and councilmen. Mayor W. Webster Vannier said that "condemnation is the next logical step and I hope the property owners objecting get less for their properties than we have offered them."

BEVINGTON and Councilman Severin L. Sorensen accused Perloff with "riding the gravy train," contending that now that he had the zoning for his business block at S. Baldwin, he was laying back hoping to get more from the city for the property needed for the new street. Similar sentiments were expressed by Councilmen Lorraine W. Lisle and James F. Abernethy.

In the end, Council decided on condemnation proceedings extending through the next three years. This would provide for a 30-foot dirt road all the way from S. Baldwin to S. Hermosa, with paving to be done by the property owners themselves through creation of an improvement district. The condemnation proceedings, it was estimated, will cost the city's taxpayers $30,000.

Yankees, Colts Win Baseball Pennants

It was a great year for baseball in Sierra Madre as the parents and visitors watched an exciting week of baseball when the Minor and Major Little League teams slugged it out in true sportsmanship determination to win.

Parents and officers of Little League can be justly proud of their boys as they competed physically and socially during the year, and the cre. dit really goes to the managers and coaches who spent untold hours of devotion at the practice and games where the boys learned to give and take in a spirit of team work.

YANKEES — LITTLE LEAGUE CHAMPS

Hartman's Drug YANKS came through as champs of Sierra Madre Little League, after a tough week of competition with three other teams who were also tied for first place last week. The Hartman's put three generations behind the YANKS with Robert Hartman sponsoring the team, Bud Hartman managing, and Chuck Hartman catching. Last year the Yankees ended up in the cellar. A Barbecue Award dinner is being planned for the boys.

COLTS — MINOR LEAGUE CHAMPS

The Royal Drug COLTS took the Minor League Pennant, after winning both rounds

played last week at Heasley Field. Noble Kuwata did an outstanding job of training, and managing the little fellows to victory, in spite of the tough Padres who were a serious threat up to the last playoff game.

The Minor League All-Stars were R. Swenson, and M. Neely of the Angels; S. Brown, T. Tuchscherer, R. Osti, and D. Cowell of the Colts; D. Fuller, D. Selph, J. McIssac, of the Padres; T. Zelt, and W. Crook of the Mounties; J. Seymour, and M. May of the Seals; P. Westman and L. Saylor of the Stars.

Fire Department Plans Traditional 4th Picnic

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department members, along with their wives and children, will gather at the Wisteria Vine on Tuesday, July Fourth for their traditional and annual Fourth of July picnic.

The tradition attending this picnic is almost as old as the department itself. It started in the days when fireworks were not illegal as they now are. In those days as now, the department being volunteer, it was decided to hold a picnic on the Fourth so that there would be enough firemen on hand in case of an emergency.

One piece of equipment is stationed at the picnic grounds for quick response in case a fire call is received.

MONEY to defray the cost of food and refreshments at the picnic is collected during the year at the department's business meetings. Members are fined for infraction of rules and for other worthwhile causes.

Members of the department are grateful to the Wisteria Vine owners who for many years have made their premises available for this occasion.

He's Still On 'Wrong Side Of Street'

Robert L. Germundsen, 26, giving his address as 1227 Bradford St., Glendora, is still on "the wrong side of the street."

Last week, officer William E. Wilburne discovered Germundsen driving on the wrong side of the street. Officer Wilburne reports finding a complete set of burglar tools in Germundsen's car. He was jailed.

A few hours later, Officer S. G. Baney discovered a burglarized service station at 985 N. Michillinda. Later, a second filling station burglary was reported in which $50 was the booty.

Germundsen, police report, is on parole for three prior burglaries—in fact, 21 since 1951 extending from Texas to Minnesota, Oregon and California.

14,000 Attend Fiesta On Dolorosa Grounds

Close to 14,000 persons from all parts of the Southland last Sunday attended the annual Family Fiesta marking the 35th anniversary of the founding of Mater Dolorosa Monastery by the Passionist Fathers.

Some 7,500 partook of the bountiful barbecued beef dinners served under a spreading red and white tent canopy erected on the monastery and retreat grounds at 700 N. Sunnyside Ave., Sierra Madre, starting at noon.

Between 500 and 600 volunteer men manned the cooking and serving staffs, with Anthony DePasco in charge of the latter. Among the workers were Louis Van Iersel, holder of the coveted Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery during two World Wars, and Joseph Delgatto, latterly president of Sierra Madre Lions Club.

POLICE CHIEF Gordon G. McMillan had most of his police force on the grounds helping direct traffic, and this, together with the Passionist Fathers own arrangements, resulted in a notable absence of accidents or mishaps during the six hours the grounds were open to the public. The program of rides, games and amusements featured the Melo-Deans Orchestra, exhibition group dancers directed by Edwin C. Palmquist, the Windsor Boys Choir and community singing. Free bus service operated between the parking lot, fun zone and retreat house. Guided tours were conducted through the latter.

4th Brings Close Watch On Fire Peril

It should be a "Safe and Sane Fourth" for inhabitants of Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch, the Oaks and Highland Oaks area and the Rosemead-Foothill section.

But will it? Officialdom is worried, not only about possibility of traffic accidents, but also about the danger, which may be termed "critical," from brush fires which conceivably could, at this particularly dry season, inflict heavy monetary damage and possibly loss of life.

City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington again emphasizes the lack of rainfall the past year and its effect upon the water supply. And Fire Marshall Bert Embree, with the concurrence of Fire Chief Charles E. Brown and Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan, issues the following warning:

"CONCURRENT with the U.S. Forest Service closure of the upper mountain lands, Fire Chief Charles E. Brown

New Faces On City Boards

Mrs. Shirley Robertson and Kenneth Sheets were appointed to the Parks and Recreation Commission for three and two-year terms, respectively.

Bowl Family Night On July 21 Will Be 'Circus'

Are you young in heart? Are memories ever too dim or far away to remember the thrill of "The Big Top." July 21 should be marked as a Red Letter Day on your calendar for that will be the day that The Hollywood Bowl will celebrate Family Night Goes to the Circus.

Climb aboard a pleasure-bound bus and be the man

Dr. George Edward Purnell, Oldest Dentist In U. S., Is Dead Here At Age of 98

Dr. George Edward Purnell, 98, whose daughter is Mrs. Remington Stone of 321 E. Grand View, and with whom he has resided the last 15 years, died Thursday, June 22 of heart stoppage in the hospital in which he had just undergone a successful operation for a hip fracture suffered on Monday during a fall.

Dr. Purnell, born at Snow Hill, Maryland, in 1863, was graduated from the first class in dentistry in the first dental college in this country at the University of Maryland, at age 21, with honors. He was the sole survivor of his class.

He practiced dentistry first in Booneville, Mo.; and when the widened depression of the '30s occurred, came to California where in partnership with Dr. John McCoy, the two "circuit rode" a dental practice in Santa Ana, Anaheim, and Orange.

When the depression deepened and began to affect California, Dr. Purnell went to Guadalajara, Mexico, for a six week's vacation—to remain about 60 years.

IN GUADALAJARA he was the first professional dentist and trained numerous apprentices, three of whom later went to the University of Maryland to return to their own country and put dentistry on a professional basis.

Dr. Purnell founded the first canning factory in Guadalajara, opened the Bank of Guadalajara, was on the faculty of the Dental College of the University of Guad.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Morley Return Via Jet From Six Week's Journey In Europe

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Morley of 400 Ramona Ave. have just returned from six weeks of vacationing in Europe.

They traveled Jet, from International Airport via New York to Glasgow, Scotland. After five days in Edinburgh they flew to London and on to Brussels, crossing the border into Germany at Aachen and via Cologne to Bonn.

A Rhine steamer trip from Boppard to Bingen was a highlight of this German visit. They arrived in Heidelberg on Whitsunday eve when all the church bells in the city were ringing in the holiday. Snow greeted them in the Black Forest near Frieberg.

THE JOURNEY then carried them into Switzerland where they spent a few days on beautiful Lake Lucerne. Then, via the Principality of Liechtenstein, they went over Arlberg Pass to Innsbruck, Austria, then over Brenner Pass into Italy where a week was divided between Venice, Florence and Rome.

Princess Grace Kelly came back from her visit to the United States the day they visited Monaco Castle.

From Monte Carlo to Nice, the Riviera of the flowers was fragrant with blossoms being grown for the perfume factories of Grasse, France.

Margaret DeLude and Monica Johnson served at the silver service.

Chairman of the annual installation was Dorothy Moe, ably assisted by Virginia Albright, Eileen Anderson, Helen Franklin, Mae Keane, Dr. Martha Kohl and Regina Schuergens.

Next meeting of Court Queen of the Rosary No. 1635 will be held on July 11 at 100 S. First Ave., Arcadia. This will be a regular business meeting.

Applications For Nursery School Entry

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School is presently accepting applications for the fall session, which starts Sept. 11. Application forms may be obtained by contacting the Nursery School at 701 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., or by phoning EL 5-1655, weekday mornings before noon.

With completion of the fourth unit which is being built to accommodate those children who are not amissible to kindergarten because their fifth birthday anniversary falls on a date after the Dec. 1 deadline, the school will be able to accommodate 170 children.

The children attend on either a Monday-Wednesday-Friday or a Tuesday-Thursday schedule from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. They are divided into groups according to age and development.

MRS. GERALD MARUGG Jr., school director, recommends that early application for admittance be filed, as the school will be closed for the four weeks in August.

Mrs. Marugg or any member of the staff will be happy to provide additional information to those parents wishing to avail themselves of the opportunity to provide the best possible nursery school environment for their pre-school children.

ATTENDANTS wore white peau taffeta sheaths with draped bouffant overskirts, hats of white velvet and satin leaves in half-crown crests.

Hooray for the good old summer time! A little wearing on Mother perhaps, but then there's nothing quite like youngsters underfoot wailing "what can we do now," to make me long for my September routine.

Of course, there are alternatives like summer school, swimming lessons, planned recreation—if you don't object to the old shuttle service routine. However, we've chosen a new diversion—camping. This should be a snap. Daddy bought our young cowboy a fishing rod, canteen and first aid kit.

Unfortunately, the desires of an 11-year-old daughter are not quite so easily satisfied. Then came the inevitable list of preparation: Have car serviced, washing and ironing enough clothes suitable for whatever temperature the Sierras offer, thoroughly soak the garden, explicit instructions to pet and garden caretakers, defrost the refrigerator, write the monthly checks so there won't be any of those polite delinquent notices upon our return, and, oh yes, gather news for two columns.

Ah this hectic point I'm still holding happy thoughts and telling myself it's worth it all! Camping, fishing, swimming, horseback riding; surely not a single voice will cry out in boredom, "We haven't anything to do!"

MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. KESTER and their soon will soon fly to Hawaii. Incidentally, they plan to rent a Jeep, and tour the glorious island on their own!

BETTY AND ACE CLUTTERBUCK took their youngsters, Cynthia and Byron, to see the Hearst castle at San Simeon. Betty reports that it's well worth the trip, plus being fun and educational!

PAT AND HARRY MESKEL have been funning and sunning at Balboa, but will soon head for Texas to visit Pat's family.

RANCH FRIENDS of Betty Stoller will be sorry to learn she's returned to St. Luke Hospital. Seems that flip she did with her car a few weeks ago resulted in a trifle more than a bruised eye. A fractured cheek bone will keep her out of circulation a bit longer. Meanwhile in South Africa, Floyd is still tracking, not tigers, but missiles for JPL.

TWO RANCH FAMILIES will soon be off on an adventurous sea voyage. They are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reddy, with Rob and Pam; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morton, with Barbara and Robert. They plan to charter a boat and leisurely cruise the water between here and Catalina, fishing and skin diving. They expect Mr. Morton will be able to give them some pointers on the latter, since he's a former frogman. They must get along with a minimum of luggage, but it sounds like a maximum of fun. Sea-sick pills, anyone?

GIRL SCOUT Troop 372 (which happens to be a successful troop merger of 30 girls from Marshall and Heritage Junior Highs), will entertain members of the Heritage Trail Scout Tour on July 8 at Linda Woonnik's pool. The Heritage Tour includes girls from many foreign lands who are touring our country by bus.

Our young Ranch Scouts are mighty proud they've been chosen to entertain the group during their brief stop-over in the Southland. Capable leaders of Troop 372 are Virginia Elliott, LouAnn Hellmers and Jane Vauerhelmer.

HENRY HELLMERS is at Davis where he will read two papers at the Triple A. meeting (the latter meaning a scientific group, not a ranch). Meanwhile, on the home front, Carol Ann is recovering from a most serious virus allergy, and bright sister, Rosemary, is studying French, flute and piano!

DOUBT IF there's anyone in the Ranch more interesting to chat with these days than Steve Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith of Greenhill Rd. Steve just returned from ten months in Europe, five months of which were spent at the University of Redlands campus in Salzbürg, Austria, followed by two months visiting relatives in the French part of Switzerland and doing considerable skiing.

He purchased a car in Munich, Germany, and proceeded to tour Spain, Portugal, North Africa, Italy, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Scotland (which he dearly loved), and sailed home from England. As a result of his study and travels, Steve has changed his major from medicine to political science. He spent the Christmas holidays with a German family in Berlin, and feels strongly that we must hold that city. He also reported a stimulating four-day student conference at the University of Prague, which he says is the showcase of Communism. Wow, this young man has really been around!

University of Colorado so, believe me, the year books were much in evidence. Mr. Garlinghouse is leaving this coming week with his daughter, Susy, for a tour of Canada and the Northwest Territory. Mrs. Garlinghouse will join them later in the month.

THE LA CANADA home of the Hamilton Styrons was scene of a going away party for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Philipson of Old House Rd. The Philipsons will leave with their family around the middle of July for a trip that they will take them to Paris, France, to live for the next two years.

The Aikman Arnstrongs were co-hosts for the party. They served a buffet dinner in the patio. Invited guests included Messrs. and Mmes. John Chapman, Charles Goldsworthy, Skipper Roster, George Clark, Gene Koch, James Smith, Howard Cheverton, Henry Beckers, and Mrs. and Mmes. Armin Deutsch, Robert Mueller, Cleo Dorsey, Lincoln Wilson and Jack Paschall Jr.

CHRIS CRAWFORD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tom Crawford of Sierra Madre Villa, has been well feted

They will go on to Cologne and up the Rhine, finally ending in Copenhagen and Dublin. They were feted by Jan Nash and Nancy Batterson at a going-away party.

New Canyon Fire Station Work Starts

Fire Chief Charles E. Brown announced that with pouring of the foundation this week, the much-needed Canyon Fire Station No. 2 began its face-lifting. The old tin garage at 744 Alta Vista Dr. was demolished last week to make way for the new concrete three-story engine house, designed for present use, as well as for future expansion. The 1,500-foot structure will, for the time being, house the reserve mountain-firefighting truck that is so essential in the canyon area. Being of concrete construction, it will be fireproof, waterproof and noiseproof, helping to keep the equipment in top shape at all times.

Floor area will afford work space for minor repairs to fire equipment, such as renovating hand tools, hose repair and small equipment repair.

AT PRESENT, toilet facilities only will be provided, with future plans for a kitchen and sleeping quarters, should a situation warrant the need. Designers have given much thought to the appearance of the front of the station, to make it as attractive as possible, and still be functional.

Plans call for the planting of shrubbery around the front area, in keeping with surrounding well-kept properties.

Chief Brown is looking forward to completion of the facilities to further the efficiency of his department, and for the much-needed added protection in the canyon area.

The firefighters plan an open house for the public, that they may visit the newest addition to the city's fire defenses.

Brush Fire Peril

 announced this week that the brush-covered areas behind the city are now closed, due to the high fire hazard. With the posting of the closure signs this week, the Mount Wilson Trail and the Sturtevant Trail also are closed to the public.
 "As we all know, the lack of rainfall this past winter makes the fire season acute, now that the summer months are upon us. Several serious fires in the nearby mountains within the past couple weeks indicates the brush is in a condition to ignite with the slightest inducement.

 "All fire-fighting agencies along the Foothills are alerted and on a standby basis, ready to spring into action in case of fire.
 "This is also the time of year that all the weeds that grew during the winter are now dry, and should be cut and removed from properties. This is not a problem just along the mountain edges, but throughout the city area.

 "Any lot, or back yard, full of dry weeds and rubbish, creates an attractive nuisance.
 "THERE HAVE been many recent incidents of children playing with matches, and invariably a weed-covered lot has been spot burned. If there are many weeds, and piles of rubbish, a fire could get out of hand and cause much damage and destruction to property, and possibly life.

 "Another reminder that fireworks are prohibited in this city is voiced by the fire marshal and police chief. As in past years, the Arcadia County Park is the nearest place that has facilities for the discharge of 'safe and sane' fireworks. Even there, as in the entire state, the possession or discharging of firecrackers, and the like, is illegal.

 "A further inducement to use the County Park area is that at 9 p.m. there is a public fireworks display, sponsored by the American Legion, free of charge, on July Fourth."

Jim Ware Saves Girl From Water

James Ware, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Ware of 55 W. Mira Monte, is a modest fellow.

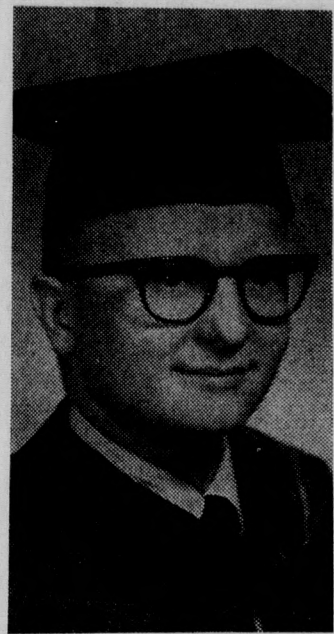

He never even told his parents but last Saturday three frantic mothers flagged Jim as he drove along Whittier Narrows Dam — the little 1½-year-old daughter of one had slipped and gone under the muddy water and was in danger of drowning.

Jim waded in, swam a bit and came up with the little girl in his grasp, then towing her ashore.

Presbyterian Leader Asks Fight on Reds

The highest honorary leader of the 3,500,000-member United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Thursday (June 22) night called upon several hundred fellow churchmen throughout the Southland for a deeper commitment to the church and its worldwide ministry.

Paul D. McKelvey, 53, of 876 Vallombrosa Dr., Pasadena, who was elected moderator of the General Assembly last month in Buffalo, N.Y., was honored guest and chief speaker at a banquet in Disneyland Hotel.

The moderator, first Southern Californian to be elevated to the high church office in 20 years, asked his audience, "How is the church to be ignited in an all-out effort?"

"By becoming a committed church," was his answer. "By involving man in her message and mission for today, by helping the layman to build his convictions and deepen his commitment."

"WHEN WE HAVE committed men and women," he continued, "we will have a committed church, and only then."

McKelvey pointed out that in a single generation approximately one billion people have been exposed to or won over by Communism, while only 750 million have heard the gospel of Jesus Christ in 2,000 years.

"Why?" he asked. "Because they have out-committed us up to this point. With the same degree of commitment on the part of the church, the Communist ideology would have no chance to prevail against the teachings and the love of Christ."

'Totalitarian Times' Topic Of Rev. Hesse

"God's Witnesses in Totalitarian Times" will be the pastoral message in the 9 and 10:30 a.m. worship services next Sunday morning at Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hasting Ranch Dr.

The sermon will be an exposition of the third chapter of the Book of Daniel to Christians living today. Containing the account of the refusal of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego to bow down before King Nebuchadnezzar's immense statue, the message will emphasize the need of strong Christian convictions in our nation and in the world today.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL and Bible Class sessions will follow the 9 a.m. Sunday School Parent-Pupil service, and will extend from 9:45 to 10:20. In the 10:30 service, the Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered to Ruth Anne, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Fokjer of Arcadia.

Concluding session of the two-week Children's Vacation Church School will be held tomorrow (Friday) morning. Parents and friends are invited to the closing exercises, from 10:30 to 12. Visitors will be given the opportunity to visit the class sessions, to view the handicraft projects, to participate in the refreshment period, and to enjoy several movie films.

Young Stanton Receives Degree

John Frederick Stanton, son of John Edward Stanton of 462 Crestvale Dr., Sierra Madre, was granted a bachelor of art degree by Saint Mary's college at commencement exercises held on June 10.

'Freedom' Is Theme For Dr. Barnhart

"Proclaim Your Freedom" is the sermon-topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, at the 10 o'clock worship service July 2.

"Man himself shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God." (Romans 8:21) will be the scripture upon which Dr. Barnhart will base her lesson-sermon.

Spiritual awakening to his Divine birthright releases spiritual forces through the mind of man that not only free him from self-imposed bondage to limitations, but also is the means through which he may construct a new world of true freedom for himself and others.

Children from pre-school through eighth grade meet at 10 a.m. every Sunday morning. Two youth groups, high school age and one for young adults from 17 through 21 meet at 7:30 p.m.

THE REGULAR Wednesday morning healing meeting, held at 10 a.m., is conducted by Rev. Rosalie Fowler. There is prayer for specific requests.

A four-week class presented by Dr. William Parker of Redlands University will be presented each Wednesday beginning on July 12, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. The tuition for this "Human Relations Seminar" will be only $10, two in same family $15. Dr. Parker is widely known for his book "Prayer Can Change Your Life" and his outstanding work in human research and prayer.

A few enrollments are still available for an enriched Summer School program being presented July 5, through Aug. 2, for 3rd through 6th grade levels. Call HI. 6-8206 for information.

Dial-For-Prayer, HI. 7-6162.

Suffers Arm Cut

Michael S. Joanne of 418 Pleasant Hill Lane was treated at Sierra Madre Community Hospital for an arm cut sustained accidentally at his home, according to police report. The injury was not serious.

Communion At Shepherd Of The Hills

"Good Fishing" is the title of the sermon to be delivered at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, by Rev. Ray E. Hansen at 10:10 a.m. Sunday. Holy Communion will be served.

Basing his remarks on the gospel story of Christ's call to the fishermen to become fishers of men, Pastor Hansen will point up the opportunities in today's communities for the Christian Church to bring the peace and confidence so sorely needed in daily life and strife.

New members received Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ted B. Anderson and son Brick, Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. E. Ewan, Sierra Madre; Mrs. Alex McDonald, Carol, Christine, Gordon, Alex, John and William of Sierra Madre; Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Waalkes, Debbie, Marcia, Paul, Jeffrey and Susan, of Arcadia.

Next reception of new members will be Sunday, July 16.

Rev. Ankeny Installation Sunday Nite

Rev. Harold Ankeny will be installed as minister of Christian Education at Bethany Church as part of the service of worship this Sunday night at 7 o'clock. An informal reception will follow to greet Mr. Ankeny, his wife, Betty, and their three children.

For the past four years Rev. Ankeny has been an instructor in the Greenleaf Academy in Greenleaf, Idaho. The Academy is operated by the Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends, under which Rev. Ankeny served two different pastorates, is a graduate of George Fox College near Portland and a veteran of World War II. He has had extensive responsibilities in both youth work and in the field of Christian Education.

The Ankens are temporary residents at 99 N. Hermosa.

Dr. Thompson Will Preach

The summer schedule, with both worship service and church school at 10 o'clock, begins this Sunday at Congregational Church.

Parents are invited to attend church with their children, 3rd grade and above, who will be dismissed to go to their class rooms during the service. Younger children will go directly to their Sunday School classes.

Dr. W. J. Thompson, former pastor, and now a member of the church, will bring the message this Sunday. His theme is "Wonderful Encouragement For You."

The regular pastor, Rev. George W. Lindsay, is serving as counselor at Pilgrim Pines, the Southern California Congregational Camp in Oak Glen, this week.

Wyoming People At Marsh Home

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Marsh and two daughters of Lander, Wyoming, are here this week visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Leland Marsh, 657 W. Grand View.

Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, California, as the time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposed variance, described as follows:

May we walk in Thy sight and Thy light, O Father, for the benefit of Thy spirituality, Thy cause and our humanity.

A 4th Of July 'Amen!'

The armed foes without and the insidious, secretive foes within, were cited, and their plots and machinations exposed as the nation's most immediate peril by Mayor W. Webster Vannier in his Memorial Day address at Sierra Madre Cemetery.

Because at this Fourth of July session it focuses on the dire problems which confront this nation, the SIERRA MADRE NEWS believes it opportune to print Mayor Vannier's address in full. This we do, adding our thanks to Mayor Vannier for his presentation of an all-American viewpoint, one from which the Pinkos and fellow-travelers in our midst may well profit.

Mayor Vannier's address follows:

"WE MEET HERE today to honor the dead who made our nation possible, and to renew our dedication to the ideals for which they fought. We are in difficult times for we recognize in the attacks of alien forces a situation as perilous today as at any period in our history.

We are confronted by armed foes without and an insidious, secretive foe within. The foe within has been more difficult to evaluate because it operates in many disguises and preaches ideals common to all of us, but with the sinister end of overthrowing and subjecting us to a foreign control.

This result has come about because our combat forces have won victories in battle which have not been followed up in the field of ideas and institutional development.

Too much we have come to regard the results of past achievement as final, as complete. We have not recognized that as our forefathers struggled to find new ways to meet new situations, and to meet new challenges, we must also find and make effective new ways adapted to our different and changed environment.

TODAY COMMUNISM cannot be defeated by reaffirming the achievements of the past but only by a rededication to the methods of combat, both physical and mental, by which the past achievements were brought about.

The birth of our nation in the American Revolution and the troubled times which led to the formation and adoption of our Constitution should be our everlasting inspiration and model. The men who carried this through to success — Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Franklin, and all others — combined practical experience as workers and as administrators with theoretical and historical knowledge of how other nations and other political units had set up governments, only to see them fail.

These men who created our Constitution knew how to select and combine the institutions of the past with the new ideas and practices which they found around them to achieve a form of government which has a strength and flexibility without equal in recorded history.

It is to their methods and their patience, their industry and understanding, that we must be dedicated. For we are faced today with problems, which, if we are honest, we will admit we are not solving.

AT HOME the biggest problem is how to work out an economy of abundance in keeping with our highest ideals. Abroad we must learn how to help the "have not" nations to help themselves without their resorting to Communism to acquire material goods. And, we must develop a framework of international justice and international controls that will keep nations from destroying each other.

These ends will never be achieved unless the people of the United States seek them with wholehearted energy and enthusiasm. How to arouse this energy and enthusiasm is the most vital task of the present. Unless we are willing and eager to attack the problems of how to organize our own society and the world we live in, with the same spirit as those who fought in our Armed Services, we shall probably fail.

We must dedicate ourselves to that task. Those who served in the Armed Forces did not leave this service to some one else. They fought it out wherever they were sent.

CANNOT WE dedicate ourselves to making real and workable that world which they made safe for us? Cannot we find in their lives and their deaths the inspiration to create the type of world for which they fought and which they were promised?

If we break this promise to them, we will lose not only our freedom but our country and our lives as well. We pray for the energy and enthusiasm to match their sacrifice."

TO WHICH this editor offers up a fervent and dedicated "Amen!"

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

52 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, July 2, 1909—Representatives of the Board of Trade, Board of Health and city trustees spent last Saturday afternoon at El Reposo Sanitarium inspecting the plant at the invitation of Mrs. H. H. Lund, the manager. Those in the party were Messrs. J. W. Keys, C. W. Jones, R. H. Mackerras, J. A. Osgood, A. N. Adams, M. H. Bridle, J. H. Wright, C. E. Morgan, N. H. Hosmer, A. S. Mead and C. S. Kersting.

Last Monday afternoon the regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held in the new home, with the odor of paints and varnishes still permeating the air. But that did not detract from the joy of the occasion. Music was furnished by Mrs. W. E. Rhea and Mrs. Laura H. Stevenson. Mrs. G. H. Latteau and Mrs. C. E. Bentham, in. ister of Kankakee, Ill., accompany and retiring presidents, respectively, were presented with handsome bouquets of roses.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, June 26, 1941—Democracy—the watchword of America—held the attention of all those attending commencement exercises at the Sierra Madre Grammar School last Thursday evening when 23 young pupils received their diplomas from Edwin W. Ward Jr., president of the Board of Trustees. Five talks centering around the school curriculum as related to the advancement of democracy, were given by Joan Woehler, Rowena Shipway, Walter Biely, Barbara West and Donna Jean Perry.

Two brothers who had not met for 30 years were reunited this week when W. S. Hol-panied by his wife and daughter Marjorie, arrived in Sierra Madre to spend three weeks getting reacquainted with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hollister of 193 N. Lima.

11 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, June 29, 1950—Bethany Church members last Friday gave the "go ahead" signal for the first step in their church building expansion program. At the quarterly meeting members authorized the building committee to obtain detailed plans for the basement of their proposed new building. The expanded facilities will be built directly west of the present church structure on Montecito. The project will necessitate removal of two houses, according to Assistant Pastor Dewey Mulholland.

Al E. Morgan last week was elected 1950-51 president of the Sierra Madre Lions Club. He will succeed Carl Peterson as chief of the Lions. Elected first vice president was Sterling T. Ripple, parade chairman of the 1950 Pioneer Days Parade.

WEEK, June 30, 1955—A group of Sierra Madreams comprising Mmes. Buckner, Brown, Stine and Glaser and Messrs. Brown, Dewar, Curtis, Giban, Sweet, Marsh and Dr. Pease met last Thursday at the Sierra Madre City School to formulate plans for a citizen's group which would conduct a careful and continuing study of the educational needs of public schools here. Mrs. Claude H. Brown was appointed temporary chairman.

Dr. Raynor Smith, minister of the Methodist Church

Letter to The Editor

Dear Editor:
At a recent meeting of the Planning Commission, it was brought to my attention that the city administrator and perhaps other Sierra Madre here for two years, leaves Sierra Madre Sunday afternoon to take the pastorate of the First Methodist Church in Centralia, Wash. His successor here has not yet been named.

officials may have been rendering individual opinions on matters that should rightly be adjudicated only by the Planning Commission, acting in concert and in public, in accordance with the governing principles for this quasi-judicial body.

Many citizens of Sierra Madre may have been unduly influenced or their rights abrogated by these acts.

During this same meeting it was interesting to note the ineffectual response of the Planning Commission to the request of the City Council for study of the Home Business License Ordinance. This, after the Council had already granted the Sandor application despite the known objections of the city attorney. It is further understood that the mayor of Sierra Madre is the seller of the real estate involved in the Sandor application. In my opinion the ethics and morality of the situation merit considerable attention. Should the Planning Commission now hasten to lock the barn door for the City Council, or should they sit back on their ditty boxes and wait until someone establishes a mortuary next door to the mayor's home? Here's my buck for the encouragement of the latter enterprise, or your favorite charity.

Thursday, June 29, 1961 SIERRA MADRE NEWS-1

Let me add that I am completely unimpressed by the pious protestations of "volunteer" by any member of the commission — they volunteered in, they can volunteer out.

— Abe Cohen.

Magneto To Car's Racing Engine Is Thief's Booty

Best not these days to leave the hood of your car open and walk away, leaving it unguarded.

Robert W. Archibald advised Sierra Madre police that he did just that at his home, 262 Manzanita, while converting a car to racing purposes.

When he returned the magneto on the racing engine was missing.

Mansurs Conclude Malibu Vacation

The Rufus W. Mansurs of 693 Ramona have been vacationing for the past five weeks in their cottage at Malibu Beach. Their time has been spent in relaxing and in meeting their many friends in their cottage which hangs a bit over the water's edge and is a splendid place for fishing. The Mansurs lived in Malibu before moving to Sierra Madre.

Young Firebugs Fail in Effort; Get Spanked

There were two would-be firebugs up on N. Baldwin one day last week. Fortunately, their embryonic adventure into arson was thwarted through their own ineptitude and promptness of others in extinguishing the fire they set in an unoccupied apartment.

Only 5 and 7 years old, they scattered paint on the floor of one room, piled paper on it and then applied a match.

Luckily, paint and paper were slow in igniting; other tenants, rushing in, extinguished the fire, and by the time Fire Marshal Bert Embree arrived, "Ages 5 and 7" were being soundly spanked with parental vigor.

Whenever Charlie Eaton isn't minding the restaurant (next door) you will find him soaking up sunshine by the pool near the entrance to Eatons Hotel. It's quite a place for basking, loafing, sleeping, relaxing, un-winding, hiding from creditors, etc. Ideal for anything from a weekend to 17 years (depending on how long you want to hide). Prices are reasonable... Pool is wet... you'll have fun... and the longer you stay the quicker Mr. Eaton can retire.
